

Why The Liberals In Congress And In The Press Can No Longer Be Trusted With The Defense Of America

For the first time in American history, while the United States engages in a life and death struggle with a foreign enemy, today one political party is waging a relentless war not on America's foreign enemies - but on our own sitting American president. For a generation, America's liberals have systematically worked to dismantle America's defenses. It's taken a dangerous toll. Now, in defense of American freedom, it's time to begin to set the record straight.

1. President Bush Has Acted With The Full Authorization Of Congress And The Assent Of The American People.

The President has acted in plain view of the American public through our most cherished public institutions. He has stood for re-election and won by over 3 million votes. Nobody knows this better than Beltway Liberals. Yet they would have the world believe otherwise. Americans can no longer stand idly by while The Left works relentlessly to discredit every action of The White House. We urgently call on Liberals in Congress and the Press to set politics aside and at long last declare war on our extremist Muslim terrorist enemies - rather than on the President of the United States of America.

2. President Bush Has Acted With Uncommon Candor, Consistency, and Resolve.

From the earliest moments of this war, beginning on September 20, 2001, the President openly presented his administration's strategic response to the 9-11 terrorist attacks (only nine days earlier). The world was watching as he addressed a joint session of Congress on national television - and was repeatedly interrupted by thunderous applause from both sides of the aisle, including the leadership of both parties.*

LIBERALS APPLAUDED AS THE PRESIDENT STATED CLEARLY:

"...Americans are asking: How will we fight and win this war? We will direct every resource at our command...and every necessary weapon of war - to the disruption and to the defeat of the global terror network...Americans should not expect one battle, but a lengthy campaign, unlike any other we have ever seen...covert operations, secret even in success. We will starve terrorists of funding, turn them one against another, drive them from place to place, until there is no refuge or no rest...the only way to defeat terrorism as a threat to our way of life is to stop it, eliminate it, and destroy it where it grows. (Applause.)

"...I've called the Armed Forces to alert, and there is a reason. The hour is coming when America will act, and you will make us proud. (Applause.)

"...I ask for your patience...in what will be a long struggle...I know there are struggles ahead, and dangers to face. But this country will define our times, not be defined by them. As long as the United States of America is determined and strong, this will not be an age of terror; this will be an age of liberty, here and across the world. (Applause.)

3. President Bush Did Not "Rush America To War" or "Lie About Weapons Of Mass Destruction."

Beltway Liberals want the world to adopt their revisionist history, and endlessly repeat distortions in pursuit of political gain. In truth, the President demonstrated remarkable restraint with the regime of Saddam Hussein. Twelve years. 17 UN Resolutions. It was crystal clear the responsibility rested solely with Saddam to prove his regime did not harbor terrorist weapons. Saddam himself precipitated the crisis when he unilaterally threw UN inspectors out in 1998. The Truth: Former President George H. W. Bush (41) suspended the Gulf War for humanitarian reasons. Liberals inside the Clinton administration shrank from their responsibilities to enforce the inspections. Liberals knowingly left it to President Bush to clean up their own dirty work resulting from their lack of vigilance and resolve 3 years earlier.

4. The Clear And Present Danger: Modern Liberalism.

Liberals in Congress and in the press stood with the President in the early days after 9-11. But their allegiance to America's security rapidly evaporated with the whiff of the next elections. Now Americans are demanding an accounting. How much safer would the United States be today if we presented a unified front against terrorism - if Beltway Liberals exhausted their energies attacking extreme Muslim terrorists with the same ferocious hatred they expend every day attacking President Bush.

5. End It. Liberal Games Are No Game. The Left is playing politics with America's security. Despite their "fairweather pledges" of unity in the wake of 9-11, Beltway Liberals have betrayed those pledges by veering into public positions which weaken the country and support sworn enemies of the United States. Thousands of tons of ink and thousands of sound bites and broadcast hours have been dedicated to attacking President Bush. Those malicious assaults are having their predictable effect of destroying the President's public approval - while Congressional approval sinks lower still. In the meantime, American prestige is damaged all around the world, with America's enemies daily emboldened. With hundreds of thousands of our best and bravest serving overseas tonight, it's time for the Liberal Lies and Liberal Games to end.
